

AMERICAN FRIENDS OF THE MAURITSHUIS

Newsletter Summer 2013

Dear American Friends of the Mauritshuis,

US TOUR

After a successful first stop in San Francisco, Girl with a Pearl Earring. Dutch Paintings from the Mauritshuis will now open at the High Museum of Art in Atlanta on June 23rd. More than 35 old masters will be on view through September 29th, 2013.

The last stop of the exhibition in the United States is New York. A smaller selection of fifteen paintings, Vermeer, Rembrandt, and Hals: Masterpieces of Dutch Painting from the Mauritshuis will be on view at The Frick Collection from October 22, 2013.

Among the works going on tour are the famous Girl with a Pearl Earring by Johannes Vermeer and The Goldfinch by Carel Fabritius, neither of which were on view in the United States in the past decade. The exhibition will be on view through January 19, 2014.

On Monday, October 28th, the American Friends will host a cocktail party and special private viewing of the exhibition of masterpieces of The Mauritshuis at the Frick Collection. Mauritshuis director Emilie Gordenker and Tracy Chevalier, author of Girl with a Pearl Earring, will be present. If you are interested in participating as a sponsor, or would like to take advantage of a unique opportunity for a corporate event at what promises to be a very special evening, please contact us at info@americanfriendsofthemauritshuis.org.

FELLOWSHIP

In September, our new conservation fellow Megan Salazar-Walsh from the Art Conservation Department at Buffalo State College will start her internship at The Mauritshuis. We are looking forward to report to you on her findings later this this year.
